Amendments to the draft Statement

Amendments to the draft Statement should be submitted, in writing and in one of the official ITUC languages, to the secretariat (congress@ituc-csi.org) according to the following schedule:

Pillar 1: Peace Democracy and Rights: deadline for submission of amendments at 10.00 on Monday 3 December; and,

Pillars 2, 3 and 4: deadline for submission of amendments at 16.00 on Monday 3 December.

Interpretation

Interpretation in the Congress plenary will be provided in the official ITUC languages English, French, German and Spanish, as well as in Arabic, Italian, Portuguese, Russian, and a Scandinavian language.

Interpretation in each sub-plenary will be provided in the four official languages. Arabic, Italian, Portuguese, Russian and Scandinavian will each be provided in one of the sub-plenaries – this information will be made available via the Congress website and app.

Requests to speak in the Plenary

Delegates wishing to propose an amendment, or to otherwise address the plenary, should register their request at the “request to speak” desk in the plenary by 09.00 on the day they wish to speak.

Structure of the sub-plenary discussions

In order to facilitate focused and interactive discussions in the sub-plenaries, it is proposed that they deal with the following thematic groups of relevant issues:

Future of Work:

- Monday 3 December: ILO Future of Work Commission; Just Transitions – climate, technology and transformation at work
- Tuesday 4 December: Technology and data – people in control
- Thursday 6 December: Migration, refugees and jobs

Wages and Inequality:

- Monday 2 December: Wages
- Tuesday 4 December: Social Protection
- Thursday 6 December: The Gender Pay Gap

Organising:

The discussions in the Organising sub-plenary would focus on the trade union organising issues relevant to the topics discussed in the previous full plenary session, with the Thursday afternoon sessions covering both Global Shifts - Just Transitions and Equality.

Congress Live – Official Speeches

Official speeches from delegates for the Congress record can be given using the Congress Live broadcast facility – the speeches will be live-streamed on the internet via the Congress website, and recorded for the official report of Congress. There will be a time limit of four minutes per speech. Requests to be included on the “Congress Live” speakers’ list can be made at the Congress Live facility.

To maximise the potential to reach audiences in the time zone of each country and region, the timings for official speeches have been organised as follows:
